Some rambling from the AnCo² team.

Red ~ Hell yes we're back with GL, after a summer without any GL we're proud to be picking up this again. I do hope we haven't lost ya'll, reasons? Well I got seriously burned out after chapter 15, I spent days of my life on that chapter. And then Mytho disappearing for months, so I had to await his return, no way I could do this one on my own with all the other work I've been doing. So yeah, don't complain, we're back, and we'll be getting this one out regularly from now on lol
Also this is now in 1280px with!
We're working our way up to chapter 19, and after that we will be changing to volume-scans-of-awesome!
These mag sca[illegible] T_T

[illegible]kon ~ Time was on my side, but I was too stussorn to wait, and so, I got lost in the nightmare of no internet connection for the past 4 months... in the middle of a Fricking game! (due to my crusty prodigy connection it has just killed me, but of course I shall be back * I said back then) and here we are, back in susiness with another chapter, fresh from the freezer! Enjoy, and THAT'S AN ORDER! 3
